Lewis J. Critelli Honored With Richard L. Snyder Business Leadership Award

Honesdale, PA –Wayne Bank’s President and Chief Executive Officer, Lewis J. Critelli, was recently honored with the Richard L. Snyder Business Leadership Award at the Greater Pike Community Foundation’s 4th Annual Dinner.

The dinner took place at The Walpack Inn in Layton, NJ on October 4th and included video acceptance speeches from Mr. Critelli and the other honorees, in addition to an awards presentation.

The Richard L. Snyder Business Leadership Award was established in 2016, in Dick’s memory, to recognize outstanding corporate philanthropic leadership in the community.

“I am honored to accept this award on behalf of the Bank’s Directors, officers, and employees,” stated Mr. Critelli. “Dick Snyder served on our Board of Directors for twelve years. But more importantly, he was a great friend and mentor, so this is a particularly meaningful honor for both the Bank and me.”

Founded in 2012, the Greater Pike Community Foundation enables caring individuals, families, and businesses to maximize their charitable support through organized, targeted community philanthropy, providing a permanent and personal way to give back to the region.
