JoAnn Fuller Completes Year I of Advanced School of Banking

Honesdale, PA – JoAnn Fuller, Vice President/Deposit and Loan Operations Manager of Wayne Bank completed Year I coursework at the 2015 Advanced School of Banking, July 12-17, at Penn Stater Conference Center, State College, Pennsylvania.

JoAnn has served the banking industry for twenty-three (23) years. During that time JoAnn has worked in customer service and operations for numerous departments, earning her the deep respect of customers and co-workers alike.

Lewis J. Critelli, President and Chief Executive Officer of Wayne Bank notes, “Wayne Bank is committed to the continuing education and development of our employees. To have Ms. Fuller, a veteran banker, continuing to study and improve her skills serves as a great role model in our organization and a reason why JoAnn continues to be such a valuable member of our team.”

The PA Bankers Association Advanced School of Banking is a three-year program that builds and expands the knowledge acquired at the School of Banking. The program is designed for professionals looking to continue their educational experience, as well as those preparing to lead at senior level positions within their organization. The program consists of 200, 300 and 400 level college coursework and provides a variety of learning techniques including lectures, teamwork, computer simulations, case studies, peer presentations, independent study and home extension problems.

The Pennsylvania Bankers Association, located in Harrisburg, is the state's leading banking trade association representing an expansive and diverse membership. The Association offers extensive continuing education programs, government relations representation on behalf of the industry, and provides numerous products and services for banks and their employees.

Wayne Bank is a subsidiary of Norwood Financial Corp., Member FDIC, and is located in Honesdale, Pennsylvania. The Bank has fifteen Community Offices in Wayne, Pike, Monroe, and Lackawanna Counties. The stock trades on the NASDAQ Global Market under the symbol – NWFL.
