Lacawac Sanctuary Receives Grant from Villaume Foundation

Honesdale, PA - The Board of The John and Helen Villaume Foundation announced that the Lacawac Sanctuary was selected to receive one of the Foundation's 2016 community grant awards. Craig Lukatch, President and Executive Director of the Lacawac Sanctuary received a check in the amount of $10,000.00 from Villaume Foundation board member Lewis J. Critelli.

Lacawac Sanctuary is a 545 acre nature preserve, ecological field research stand and public environmental education center located on Sanctuary road in Lake Ariel. The Sanctuary boasts a pristine glacial lake, Lake Lacawac, bogs, forests with hiking trails and the historic Watres Lodge which is listed on the National Register of Historic Places. The funds from the Villaume grant will be used to upgrade antiquated systems at the Historic Lodge and Great Camp. For additional information regarding Lacawac Sanctuary, please visit its website at www.lacawac.org.

The John and Helen Villaume Foundation established by Honesdale natives, John and Helen Villaume, is dedicated to benefit charitable, religious, scientific, literary and educational programs within Wayne County. Since its inception, the Foundation has made awards totaling over $1,000,000.00 with Wayne Bank managing the account in the Wealth Management and Trust Services Division of Wayne Bank.
