Wayne Bank's Supports New Lackawanna Arts Fest

Scranton, PA – Wayne Bank is proud to sponsor the upcoming Lackawanna Arts Fest on Saturday, August 4 in downtown Scranton.

Formerly called Arts on the Square, this year's event was renamed Lackawanna Arts Fest to highlight Lackawanna County's support of the arts and to promote the festival outside the region. It will now be the area's largest arts festival and the August 4th date, which will sandwich it between Scranton's First Friday art walk and the annual Scranton Jazz Festival, will create a Lackawanna Arts Weekend.

Hosted by ScrantonMade and Lackawanna County, the Lackawanna Arts Fest will take place from Noon until 8 pm with over 150 artists, crafters, and vendors. There will also be talented local musicians, performing artists, activities for kids, food, and so much more wrapped around Courthouse Square.

"Wayne Bank is proud to support the new Lackawanna Arts Fest," stated Elaine Reuthe, Central Scranton Community Office Manager for Wayne Bank.

“It’s a wonderful opportunity to celebrate the arts in Lackawanna County and explore everything that Scranton has to offer.”
