Wayne Bank Develops Emerging Leaders

Honesdale, Pa – Wayne Bank recently held a leadership development course at its Honesdale Corporate Office on November 8, 2017. Led by the Bank’s Senior Vice President and Director of Human Resources, Ryan French, the course provided each individual with the skills necessary to be an effective leader. Fifteen Wayne Bank employees, from various Community Offices, took part in this educational program.

“I am so pleased to be able to share this beneficial course with our employees,” stated Mr. French. “The topics covered will help to develop their leadership skills so that they may better motivate and inspire their teams, as they continue to advance in their careers at Wayne Bank.”

Employees who attended the program include: Jodi Bair, Callicoon Community Office Branch Specialist; Andrea Bartow, Andes Community Office Branch Specialist; Rachelle Bowers, Wurtsboro Community Office Branch Specialist; Carolyn Connors, Stamford Community Office Branch Specialist;

Karolyn Frey, Marshall's Creek Community Office Head Teller; Brenda Gesell, Franklin Community Office Head Teller; Mindy Gorton, Lakewood Community Office Branch Specialist; Tim Gutliph, Walton Community Office Assistant Manager; Kelsey Maddalena, Stroud Mall Community Office Head Teller; Erin Mason, Monticello Community Office Manager; Casie Nacinovich, Honesdale Main Street Community Office Head Teller; Tariq Peters, Monticello Community Office Branch Specialist; Krystle Sepulveda, Shohola Community Office Head Teller; Kerry Snyder, Roxbury Community Office Branch Specialist; and Donna Weaver, Hamden Community Office Branch Specialist.
