Wayne Bank Announces New Hire and Promotion at Bank of Cooperstown

Honesdale, Pa – Lewis J. Critelli, President and Chief Executive Officer of Wayne Bank, is pleased to announce the addition of Paul Catan to its commercial lending team in Oneonta.

Catan, Vice President of Commercial Lending, will be working with local businesses to meet their borrowing needs. He has over 20 years of lending experience.

Mr. Critelli stated, “I am pleased to welcome Paul to our Bank of Cooperstown commercial lending team. His extensive experience will be an asset to local businesses across the region.”

Catan is a volunteer tennis coach at Oneonta high school, as well as at SUNY Oneonta. He resides in Oneonta with his wife, Michelle, and their three children.

Jennifer Dileo was recently promoted to Community Office Manager of the Oneonta office. She is responsible for managing the office to meet and exceed the financial service needs of the community.

Mr. Critelli noted, “Jennifer’s financial skills and dedication to the Oneonta Community Office staff, as well as her customers, make this promotion well-deserved.”

Dileo started with Bank of Cooperstown in 2014 when the Oneonta Community Office opened, and has served in various roles during her tenure. She resides in Oneonta.

Wayne Bank is a subsidiary of Norwood Financial Corp., Member FDIC, and is located in Honesdale, Pennsylvania. The Bank has 30 Community Offices serving Wayne, Pike, Monroe, Lackawanna, and Luzerne Counties in Pennsylvania, along with Delaware, Sullivan, Otsego, Ontario, and Yates Counties in New York State, including those offices operating under the Bank of Cooperstown and Bank of the Finger Lakes brands.
