MaryAlice Petzinger, Wayne Bank Regional Vice President and Manager of the Milford Community Office invites the community to stop by for some free refreshments at any of the three Pike County community offices on October 30th. “It is another chance for us to thank our customers, invite the public to see what we have to offer, and to promote a very worthy cause. Each year we collect non-perishable food to donate to local organizations that distribute the food to the less fortunate in our area.
