Wayne Bank Celebrates New Roscoe Community Office With Ribbon Cutting

Roscoe, NY – Wayne Bank recently held a ribbon cutting ceremony at its newly relocated Roscoe Community Office, on August 22.

Community leaders, representatives from local businesses, and members of Wayne Bank’s Board of Directors and Executive Management Team attended the event to celebrate the new location.

“We are so pleased to officially open our new Roscoe Community Office,” said Lewis J. Critelli, President and Chief Executive Officer of Wayne Bank.

“Wayne Bank is dedicated to investing in the communities we serve and we are proud to continue that tradition in Sullivan County with this wonderful new office that will serve the local businesses, organizations, and residents of Roscoe and the surrounding areas.”

In April of this year, Wayne Bank’s Roscoe Community Office was relocated, across the street, to its new space at 56 Stewart Avenue in Roscoe. The freshly renovated building offers customers enhanced features including improved parking, visibility, and technological upgrades. The Bank’s growth in this market necessitated this relocation in order provide the Roscoe Community with a more convenient and modern office.

Wayne Bank is a subsidiary of Norwood Financial Corp., Member FDIC, Equal Housing Lender, and is located in Honesdale, Pennsylvania. The Bank has 26 Community Offices serving Wayne, Pike, Monroe, and Lackawanna Counties in Pennsylvania, along with Delaware and Sullivan Counties in New York State. The stock trades on the NASDAQ Global Market under the symbol— NWFL.
