Wayne Bank Fuels Runners During Scranton Half Marathon

Scranton, PA – Wayne Bank employees recently handed out bananas and cheered on the over 2,000 participants of the Fifth Annual Scranton Half Marathon on Sunday, April 8.

Led by the Bank’s Central Scranton Community Office Manager, Elaine Reuthe, employees distributed 80 pounds of bananas to racers in need of fuel at mile 5.5, as they passed by Wayne Bank’s Central Scranton Community Office, on Adams Avenue across from the Courthouse.

“This is one of our favorite Scranton events to support every year,” said Ms. Reuthe. “It brings such positive recognition to our wonderful city and shows how vibrant our local community is. Our employees have so much fun passing out bananas and cheering on the runners, especially when they include our own Senior Vice President and Director of Human Resources, Ryan French, who we were all excited to watch for!”

The Scranton Half Marathon highlights the local area, bringing increased exposure and revenue for local businesses. As a nonprofit organization, proceeds from the 2018 event will benefit the continued development of the Lackawanna River Heritage Trail.

Wayne Bank is a subsidiary of Norwood Financial Corp., Member FDIC, and is located in Honesdale, Pennsylvania. The Bank has 26 Community Offices serving Wayne, Pike, Monroe, and Lackawanna Counties in Pennsylvania, along with Delaware and Sullivan Counties in New York State.
