Wayne Bank's Sponsors Steampunk Honesdale

Honesdale, PA – Wayne Bank is proud to sponsor the upcoming Greater Honesdale Partnership's "Steampunk Honesdale".

It's the second year for this family-friendly event, which will take place from Saturday, July 21 through Sunday, July 22. Craft vendors will line up along Main Street for sidewalk sales, attendees can enjoy a steam powered train excursion from the Stourbridge Line, and many of Honesdale's local shops, restaurants, and organizations will host special steampunk themed promotions.

Wayne Bank's Honesdale Main Street Community Office will host a Steampunk Customer Appreciation Event*, during normal Saturday business hours on the 21st, with refreshments and their spectacular, working, steampunk ATM, which is the perfect spot for a Steampunk Honesdale photo op.

"Wayne Bank is proud to sponsor this one-of-a-kind community event," said Jill Hessling, Vice President and Regional Manager for Wayne Bank. "It's a wonderful opportunity to celebrate our industrial heritage and explore everything that Honesdale has to offer!"

Steampunk is a style of design that combines historical elements, featuring steam-powered machinery, with modern technology inspired by science fiction. For more information on Steampunk Honesdale, go to www.visithonesdalepa.com .

Wayne Bank is a subsidiary of Norwood Financial Corp., Member FDIC, and is located in Honesdale, Pennsylvania. The Bank has 26 Community Offices serving Wayne, Pike, Monroe, and Lackawanna Counties in Pennsylvania, along with Delaware and Sullivan Counties in New York State. The stock trades on the NASDAQ Global Market under the symbol— NWFL.
