Wayne Bank offers financial safety and soundness expertise at an upcoming Community Event

Tannersville, PA – Rosie Demorizi-Ortiz, Wayne Bank Manager of the Tannersville Community Office invites you to attend Community Event with a theme of protecting your financial security. The event is being held on October 24 at the Wayne Bank Tannersville Community Office located at 2951 Route 611.

The event features free food, refreshments and a prize raffle. Wayne Bank will have a 'Teach Children to Save' program with the Story of Mr. Cash coloring books and piggy banks. Also attending the event are Chocolate Works and Vinter's Circle Winery each with activities for kids and free Cotton Candy.

The Pocono Township Police will also be doing fingerprint passports for children under the age of 6.

Rosie notes, "This event is a fun opportunity for kids to learn about saving and for parents to get more information about financial safety and security, as well as enjoy some free food and refreshments.” For more information, visit <https://www.waynebank.com/tannersville-community-event> or call the Tannersville office at 570-629-1600.
