Honesdale Roots & Rhythm receives Villaume Foundation Grant

Honesdale, PA – The Board of The John and Helen Villaume Foundation has announced that the Honesdale Roots & Rhythm Music & Arts, Inc. has been selected to receive one of the Foundation's 2015 community grant awards.

Brian Fulp, Chair and Volunteer Coordinator, on behalf of Honesdale Roots & Rhythm, received a check in the amount of $5,000.00 from Villaume Foundation board member, Paul Edwards.

Honesdale Roots & Rhythm Music & Arts, Inc. is a non-profit program dedicated to promoting and developing music and arts in the greater Honesdale community through a free music festival held yearly in Honesdale. This music festival features a wide variety of international and national musical styles and also offers children's activities and also provides a platform to promote and expand local business development. The 2015 music festival will be held on Saturday, June 20, 2015. For additional information on Honesdale Roots & Rhythm and upcoming festivals, visit their website at www.honesdalerootsandrhythm.com.

The John and Helen Villaume Foundation established by Honesdale natives, John and Helen Villaume, is dedicated to benefit charitable, religious, scientific, literary and educational programs within Wayne County. Since its inception, the Foundation has made awards totaling over $1,000,000.00 with Wayne Bank managing the account in the Wealth Management and Trust Services Division of Wayne Bank.

Additional information about the Foundation and grant applications may be obtained from: The John and Helen Villaume Foundation, c/o Wayne Bank Wealth Management and Trust Services Division, 717 Main Street, Honesdale, PA 18431, or by phone: 570-253-8507 or email: trust@waynebank.com.
