Wayne Bank Supports the Wayne County Emergency Food Relief Fund

Honesdale, PA – Lewis J Critelli, President and Chief Executive Officer of Wayne Bank, is pleased to announce that the Bank will support the Wayne County Emergency Food Relief Fund through the Wayne County Community Foundation with a $4,000.00 contribution.

“Wayne Bank is dedicated to helping our local communities and is proud to support the Wayne County Emergency Food Relief Fund during the COVID-19 pandemic,” stated Mr. Critelli. “These unprecedented times are challenging for many people within our community and we are so pleased to be able to help our local emergency food providers with this donation.”

The Wayne County Emergency Food Relief Fund will be collecting funds through the Wayne County Community Foundation to serve as many people as possible across Wayne County. The Fund is helping to supply emergency food providers including, but not limited to, the Wayne County Pantry Program, The Cooperage Project, and various churches and community groups that are providing the community with food and pantry items. For more information please visit <https://www.waynefoundation.org/>.
