Wayne Bank Holds School Supply Drive For Walton Central School District

Walton, NY – From August 1 – September 6, Wayne Bank’s Walton Community Office will collect school supplies for the Walton Central School District.

The Walton Community Office on Delaware Street will have a collection box set up in their lobby, where items can be dropped off during regular business hours.

“Wayne Bank is dedicated to helping our community and we are so pleased to be able to once again support local students and families in the Walton Central School District with this school supply drive,” explained Timothy W. Gutliph, Wayne Bank’s Walton Community Office Manager. “We had such a wonderful response to our drive last year and are so grateful to our community for their continued support.”

The Walton Central School District is made up of Townsend Elementary School, Mack Middle School, and O’Neill High School. Throughout its schools, the District strives to maintain an environment that sets high academic standards:

requires quality performance; and fosters mutual cooperation, emotional support, and personal growth. The 2019-20 Supply Wish List includes items such as folders, crayons, pencils, scissors, art smocks, notebooks, glue sticks, and more. In addition, donations of backpacks and sneakers would also be gratefully accepted.

For more information, please call 607-865-4126 or stop by the Wayne Bank Community Office on Delaware Street in Walton.

Wayne Bank is a subsidiary of Norwood Financial Corp., Member FDIC, and is located in Honesdale, Pennsylvania. The Bank has 26 Community Offices serving Wayne, Pike, Monroe, Lackawanna, and Luzerne Counties in Pennsylvania, along with Delaware and Sullivan Counties in New York State. The stock trades on the NASDAQ Global Market under the symbol— NWFL.
