Wayne Bank Celebrates New Clarks Summit Community Office with Ribbon Cutting

Clarks Summit, PA – Wayne Bank recently held a ribbon cutting ceremony at its newly relocated Clarks Summit Community Office on May 2.

Community leaders, representatives from local businesses, and members of Wayne Bank’s Board of Directors attended the event to celebrate the new location.

“We are so pleased to officially open our new Clarks Summit Community Office,” said Lewis J Critelli, President and Chief Executive Officer of Wayne Bank. “‘Helping the Community Grow’ has been our mission for over 146 years and we are proud to continue that tradition in Lackawanna County with the construction of this beautiful new Community Office that will serve the local businesses, organizations, and residents of Clarks Summit and the surrounding communities.”

Wayne Bank’s Clarks Summit Community Office was relocated in December of 2017 to its brand new, state-of-the-art building at 841 Northern Boulevard in Clarks Summit. The newly constructed, 2,300 square-foot office offers customers a more spacious and contemporary setting, with larger and more convenient parking, and easier access to the drive-thru banking lanes. The Clarks Summit Community Office had occupied its previous location, down the street at 651 Northern Boulevard, since 1989. The Bank's growth in this market necessitated this relocation in order to provide its customers with a more expansive and enhanced office.

Wayne Bank is a subsidiary of Norwood Financial Corp., Member FDIC, Equal Housing Lender, and is located in Honesdale, Pennsylvania. The Bank has 26 Community Offices serving Wayne, Pike, Monroe, and Lackawanna Counties in Pennsylvania, along with Delaware and Sullivan Counties in New York State. The stock trades on the NASDAQ Global Market under the symbol— NWFL.
