Wayne Bank Supports the Wayne County YMCA

Honesdale, PA – James O. Donnelly, President and Chief Executive Officer of Wayne Bank, is pleased to announce that the Bank has supported the Wayne County YMCA with a donation through the Neighborhood Assistance Program – Special Priorities Program (“NAP-SPP”).

Representatives from the Wayne County YMCA’s Board of Directors and Executive Leadership, elected officials from Pennsylvania, and the Northeast Regional Director for the Department of Community and Economic Development accepted a check in the amount of $124,250.00 from Diane Wylam, Wayne Bank’s Senior Trust Officer, and Derek Bellinger, Wayne Bank’s Residential Mortgage Sales Officer.

The gift was made possible as a result of the NAP-SPP Tax Credit Program offered by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, acting through the Department of Community and Economic Development.

“Wayne Bank is so pleased to contribute towards the growth of the Wayne County YMCA,” stated Mr. Donnelly. “Supporting the YMCA through our donation reflects our commitment to investing in the health and well-being of our community. We believe in the YMCA's mission to empower individuals and strengthen the foundation of our society through youth development, healthy living, and social responsibility.”

Wayne County YMCA is a non-profit agency serving Wayne County for over 40 years. The YMCA offers programs not only at its current facility located on Park Street in Honesdale, but throughout Wayne County as well. The YMCA offers programs for all ages - from preschool to senior citizens. Financial assistance is available to those in need.
