Wayne Bank Opens New Community Office in Forty Fort, PA, Ushering in a New Era of Community Banking

Honesdale, PA – Jim Donnelly, President and Chief Executive Officer of Wayne Bank, is proud to announce the opening of its newest Community Office in Forty Fort, PA. The new office is located at the iconic corner of 983 Wyoming Avenue. Surrounded by landmarks that define the city, this new office brings modern banking services to a historic and cherished location. This corner has long been a hub for the community, serving as home to financial institutions in years past. Wayne Bank is thrilled to embrace this rich legacy while introducing a forward-thinking vision of banking for the people of Forty Fort.

“We’re not just opening a new office,” stated Jim Donnelly. “We’re becoming part of the fabric of this community. This move to Forty Fort is a symbol of trust, progress, and our commitment to the community. We’re here to serve today and to be a partner that our customers can count on for years to come.”

The revitalized office features modern banking amenities, including state-of-the-art technology, full service personal and business banking options, a convenient parking lot, drive-up banking window, ATM, night drop service, and experienced staff dedicated to supporting their customers.

“This office represents more than just a new building,” stated Steven Daniels, Executive Vice President and Director of Consumer Banking. “It’s about reconnecting with a community that values local relationships. We look forward to welcoming familiar faces and new neighbors into our doors.”

The office will officially open on January 6th, 2025, with a ribbon-cutting ceremony and community celebration planned for the Spring.
